FIATUM COOKIE POLICY

Hello everyone, this is Fiatum Cookie Policy (the “Policy”).

When you visit our website or use a mobile app, we will place one or more cookies on your device or use JavaScript, HTML 5 and other digital technologies to collect information from your computer, mobile handset or other device. This information may contain personal data. In this cookie policy we will tell you what cookies we will use and what their functions are. How we process personal data that we obtain from your device is described in our Privacy Policy.

When we refer to cookies, we mean small (temporary) text files that we send to your device. We may also use similar digital technologies such as JavaScript, HTML 5, device fingerprints, etc. We refer to all of these digital techniques as "cookies" in this Policy.

WHY DO WE USE COOKIES?

Cookies may be used for many different purposes. In the first place, these cookies ensure that you can use the basic functionality of the website: they remember your selection and the choices you make to improve your experience on our website. They help make the shopping cart and checkout process possible as well as assist in security issues and conforming to regulations. We call them “functional cookies”.

Cookies can also be used to allow us to further develop and improve the functionality of our website by tracking usage. In some cases they improve the speed with which we can process your request, allow us to remember site preferences you have selected.

These cookies channel back data to our data analytics tools. If you visit one of our websites, we can determine from which marketing channel you originated (e.g., Google AdWords, e-mail newsletter), what pages you viewed, which items you have added to your cart and which ones you bought. We also receive information on how you use and interact with our websites as well as on the amount of time that you spend on it. The server of our websites also collects basic information that relates to the request that is made from your browser when you visit the websites. These data may include information on your last visit date and time, timestamp of the browser request, your IP address, basic HTTP header information (like referral URL and user agent) and previous URL that was requested by your browser.

Thirdly, “social media- and advertising cookies” offer the possibility to connect you to social networks and share content from our website on social media. Information that we obtain from advertising cookies is used to maintain your personal advertising profile. In addition, Facebook, Google and other online actors can independently register your use of our advertisements. Please read the privacy policies of such third parties as we are not responsible for the personal data they process for their own purposes.

When you withhold your consent this does not automatically delete any cookies that are already on your device pursuant to your previous consent. You will need to delete these cookies manually. How do you do this? Below you'll find the way to remove cookies for your particular browser:
